LUTHERAN.

The meeting of the Lutheran League Central held last night in St. Mark's Church was attended by young people from all of the Lutheran churches. The president of the league, F. W. Leonhardt, of St. Mark's, presided and special musical numbers were given by the choir of that church. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Dr. Charles F. Steck, pastor of the Church of the Epiphany, on the subject, "Why I Am a Lutheran." Brief talks were made by representatives of the various leagues.

A service at the Lutheran Home for the Aged at Winthrop Heights will be conducted tomorrow by Rev. John Weidley, pastor of the Church of the Reformation, who is also president of the board of trustees of the home. Many Lutherans from all parts of the city congregated at the home on pleasant Sunday afternoons to attend the services which are in charge of the different Lutheran churches.

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Mgr. William T. Russell will deliver the sermon at the 11 o'clock high mass, which will be sung tomorrow in St. Patrick's Church. The celebrant will be Rev. James A. Smyth, and the master of ceremonies will be Rev. M. P. Egan. The music will be furnished by two choirs, the sanctuary choir, directed by R. Mills Silby, singing the responses, and the choir of mixed voices, led by Miss Jennie Glennan, singing the proper of the mass. The members of the League of the Good Shepherd will receive their regular monthly communion at the 5 o'clock mass, of which Mr. Russell will be the celebrant. They will assemble again at 7:30 p. m. for the weekly recitation of their office, when Mr. Russell will again officiate and preach. This will be the last meeting of the members of the league until the fall, but they will receive communion on the first Sunday of each month of the summer.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The Christian Endeavor societies of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church will be "at home" to the other Christian Endeavor societies of the District of Columbia on Monday evening, June 5. A short business meeting will be held at 8 p. m., the devotional exercises being led by the president of the Virginia State C. E. union. The recently appointed nominating committee will make its recommendations regarding the new officers for the District of Columbia C. E. union for the year beginning July 1, and the election will follow. The business session will be followed by a social hour, in charge of a joint committee of the Vermont Avenue Christian Endeavor societies and the Christian Endeavor Union. It is expected that the local societies will report their progress in the "Millions Movement."

German paper factories have raised prices as follows: Tracing paper, 20 per cent; drawing paper, 20 per cent; carbon paper, 50 per cent. In addition to the recent increase of 30 per cent.

With the Washington Churches

BAPTIST.

Baptist ministers and representative laymen of Washington met yesterday afternoon in the office of J. J. Darlington to consider the contribution of the District of Columbia toward the special fund which is necessary to cancel the deficit in the Southern Baptist mission fund. Rev. Dr. T. B. Ray, secretary of the Foreign Missionary Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, with headquarters at Richmond, Va., and Rev. George W. McDaniel, pastor of First Baptist Church, Richmond, explained the program which was decided upon by the recent convention at Asheville, N. C. Of the deficit of $150,000 in the foreign mission funds announced at the convention $100,000 has been secured and the remaining $50,000 has been apportioned among the churches attached to this convention.

It was decided at yesterday's meeting to present the matter to the Baptist churches of Washington either tomorrow or on the following Sunday, and it is anticipated that the local churches will make liberal contributions to the fund. Among those present at the conference were: Rev. Dr. J. J. Muller, Rev. Dr. G. G. Johnson, Rev. Dr. B. D. Gaw, Rev. J. C. Hall, R. A. Ford, Fred Beall, and J. J. Darlington.

The convention at Asheville which was attended by several ministerial and lay delegates from this city was the largest in attendance in the history of the Southern Baptists. The number of delegates reached 10,000. The additions to the church during the year since the last report were said to number 168,000, making a total membership of 2,600,000, with 25,000 churches and 18,000 Sunday schools. The money raised by these churches was in round figures $12,500,000, of which sum $1,500,000 was set aside for missionary effort. The deficit in mission funds which was reported to the convention was said to be due to the effect of the war on the business of the South last year, particularly with reference to cotton. The missionary society reported the opening of sixty-seven new churches in foreign lands during the year and the baptism of 6,000 converts.

At Immanuel Baptist Church the Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service tomorrow and in the evening the pastor, Rev. Dr. Gove G. Johnson, will preach a sermon to women, while a choir of young women will be in charge of the music.

As a result of the "forward movement" in this church the church debt was reduced by $2,000 at the end of May, and $1,225 was paid on the interest. It is planned to again reduce the debt by a like amount in November.

The seventh anniversary of Rev. John E. Briggs as pastor of Fifth Baptist Church will be observed tomorrow. His anniversary sermon will be preached in the morning, at which service communion will also be observed. In the evening Mr. Briggs will speak on "A Bad Bargain," and will conduct a baptismal service.

Fifth Church has received during Rev. Mr. Briggs' pastorate 913 new members, of which number 576 came in by baptism, 337 by letter and experience. The present membership of the church is 1,311 and of the Sunday school 1,533. The average attendance of the school for the past year has been 867. The total contributions of the church for the seven years amount to $113,375.

The church supports Dr. R. E. Chambers in China and Dr. George Green, a medical missionary in Africa, also two native missionaries in the foreign field and two home missionaries in America. In addition to a pastor's helper and church missionary in Washington, the church conducts a mission on Four-and-a-half street, near N. southwest. Mr. Briggs will return to the city tomorrow from Atlanta, Ga., where he has been attending the sessions of the home mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention, of which board Mr. Briggs is vice president for the District of Columbia.

The annual report of Calvary Baptist Church shows the addition of 190 new members during the year, making the total membership 2,651. The enrollment of the Sunday school is 2,781. The collections from all sources amounted to $40,622.

Rev. B. D. Gaw, pastor of West Washington Baptist Church, will go Monday to Round Hill, Va., where he will conduct evangelistic services for two weeks in the Baptist Church of which Rev. I. E. Lake is pastor.

Dr. F. Vernon Atkinson will administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the morning service tomorrow of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, which will also preach morning and evening. Announcement is expected to be made as to whether Rev. Paul Langhorne, of Philadelphia, is to become the regular pastor of this church.

The delegates to the Phi Mu Sigma National Bible School Fraternity, now in session in this city, will assemble at the Metropolitan Baptist Church tomorrow at 11 a. m., at which time the pastor, Rev. John Compton Ball, will preach the convention sermon.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Ball will begin a series of sermons on "June Joys," the special topic for tomorrow evening being "A Bevy of Bridesmaids."

The pastor of the Centennial Baptist Church, Rev. E. H. Swann, will preach on "Christian Pleasures" tomorrow night. The service will be concluded with baptisms.

At the Second Baptist Church, Fourth and Virginia avenue southeast, tomorrow night, at 8 the pastor, Rev. Howard I. Stewart, will preach on "Sugar-Coated Sins." At 11 a. m. the topic will be "The Golden Eagle and the Glorious Cross." Special music will be rendered by the chorus choir.

Tomorrow morning at the First Baptist Church, Sixteenth and O streets, Rev. W. M. McLean will preach the Lord's Supper sermon, "The World's Darkest Hour," in which he will outline the conditions prevailing in the war-torn countries of Europe. In the evening Judge William J. Norris, of the Supreme Court, will deliver the address he was to have given last Sunday, but which had to be deferred, owing to the rain. The subject is "The Wards of the United States in the Orient." The public is invited to attend.

"The Importance of Family Worship" will be the subject of Rev. Dr. Waldron's sermon at 11 a. m. tomorrow at Shiloh Baptist Church. The Lord's Supper will be observed in the afternoon and new members will be welcomed into the church. The Florida Avenue Baptist Church and her pastor, Rev. Dr. W. A. Taylor, will join Shiloh in the communion service. At night the pastor will preach on "Jesus' Habits of Prayer."

METHODIST.

The Mount Pleasant M. E. Church, South, will occupy its new home at Sixteenth and Locust streets tomorrow, when all the services of the church will be conducted in the new edifice for the first time. Rev. Dr. Forest J. Prettyman, chaplain of the Senate, is pastor of the church, and will preach at the morning and evening services. For the greater part of the time since its establishment this church has occupied temporary quarters in the Postoffice Building on Park road, where its meetings were held during this week for the last time. The new structure, in front of which it is anticipated that a more spacious auditorium will be erected at some time in the future, has been constructed at a cost of approximately $20,000, and occupies a highly desirable location on Sixteenth street extended. Only the basement of the new building is ready for use at this time, and the formal dedication of the structure will not occur until in the fall.

The Methodist Protestant general conference, in session at Zanesville, Ohio, set as a goal for the next quadrennium a fund of $1,000,000 for general conference purposes and a 30 per cent increase in church membership.

At the Rhode Island Avenue Methodist Protestant Church, the pastor, Rev. G. I. Humphries, will speak at the communion service tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock on the topic "In Remembrance of Me." In the evening his subject will be "Kept for the Inheritance." The church will celebrate children's day on the following Sunday at 11 a. m.

A community rally in the interest of temperance will be held in this church on Tuesday evening, June 6, when "Cyclone" Davis, Congressman from Texas, will speak, under auspices of the Anti-Saloon League.

The pastor of Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon, has returned from Saratoga Springs, N. Y., where he was a delegate to the general conference, in session during the month of May, and will occupy the pulpit tomorrow morning and evening. The theme for the morning sermon will be "Ascension," and at "The Bright Hour" evening service he will speak on "General Conference Echoes."

Mr. Howard A. Banks, private secretary to the Secretary of the Navy, will give one of his series of talks on the Book of Revelation, on Tuesday, June 6, at 2:30 o'clock in the Mt. Vernon M. E. Church, South, Ninth and K streets northwest.

The public and all Bible students are cordially invited to be present. A review of the entire book will probably be given by Mr. Banks on June 27.

There will be special services tomorrow in the Douglas Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church. At 11 a. m. the theme of the pastor, Rev. C. McLean, is "Methodist Unification," baptism and holy communion will follow. At 7:30 p. m. Rev. Dr. Manuel Andujar, district superintendent of Porto Rico, will preach.

CONGREGATIONAL.

Rev. Robert W. Coe, acting pastor of First Congregational Church, and Rev. Lewis E. Purdum, pastor of Ingram Memorial Church, will exchange pulpits tomorrow morning.

The congregation of First Church is gathering funds for the purpose of obtaining a typewriter for the use of the church's missionary at Barsi, India, Rev. Lorin S. Gates, and has secured almost the entire amount needed.

The Boy Scouts of this church will give an exhibition in the Sunday school room of the church on Tuesday, June 6, at 8 p. m., when Scout Executive J. W. Patton will lecture on scoutcraft.

At the First Congregational Church the following musical program has been arranged for the service at 11

"Christ's Call to Men to Join His Standard"

By Rev. Randolph H. McKim, D. D.

"He that is not with Me is against Me"—Luke 11:23.

A great war is being waged between the powers of darkness and the powers of light. In this great struggle Jesus Christ is the supreme leader of the forces of righteousness and justice, purity and truth against intemperance and oppression and injustice. Never was warfare more real! Never was a crisis more tremendous than that which is involved in this great struggle. Think of the literature of unbelief and infidelity that is flooding the world with its millions of volumes! Think of the corrupt stream of the literature of vice that is flowing all over our land! Think of the unspeakable wickedness of the white slave traffic! Is there any power that can hope to stem this flood of evil but Christianity? And therefore ought not every man who believes in Christ; who loves Him and wishes Him victory over vice and sin, to be on His side, not secretly, but openly, boldly, in outspoken allegiance, in definite discipleship?
